

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER TABLE SERIES. NUMBER CXY.

A DIET FOR MENTAL DYSPEPTIC, AND A CURE FOR HYPOCHONDRIA, HYPOCHIRIA, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

BY OUR SERIES EDITOR. ALMANAC AND DIARY.

SHORT METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEEK.

Monday, 8.—Puddlers' strike, which accounts for the absence of puddlers in the streets, and the presence of puddlers on the sidewalks.

Tuesday, 9.—Mr. Seward enters into the Real Estate business, and makes an extensive purchase in the region of the Arctic Circle. This is reckoned "a big thing on ice."

Wednesday, 10.—A flutier among the Public Schools on the report that the policemen are trying to make room in them for the cutted pussens.

Thursday, 11.—The Senate school breaks up. The Senators presented with the gavel, inkstand, penknives, plecters, and other "swag."

Friday, 12.—The Great Eastern closes its gateway to any more gangs who insist on visiting it. The Captain says the ladies (?) try to steal the "bonnet" of the JB.

Saturday, 13.—SERIES COLUMN DAY. The Editor expects to visit Russian America next week, with a Bear—possibility of returning home again.

OUR NEW TERRITORY.

THE RUSH TO THE POLES.

And to Swing in the Arctic Circle!

FULL PARTICULARS BY THE DOG SLEDGES.

Mr. SERIES EDITOR:—As the fast mail dog train is about leaving, I must enclose, for the benefit of your readers, some little account of the new territory that will soon seek to send

ITS REPRESENTATIVES to Congress. This is the abode of the Walrus, the Polar Bear, the Sable, and other citizens of foreign birth; and while your Government is doing so much for their Southern sable brethren, I hope they will not forget their

NORTHERN SABLE CITIZENS, who are in as great need of reconstruction as any race can be. The fraternizing qualities of many of the natives here are beyond all praise. The first day I landed I was RECEIVED WITH OPEN ARMS by the principal resident of the place, and he pressed me very hard to stay, although I was desirous of pushing on farther. I see that a great number of people are going to make an excursion this summer to the East: if I could only persuade them to make it to the Northwest, I could promise them any amount of pleasure. For a summer residence this place has no superiors: ice is abundant, and the landscape always presents a clear, white appearance, as if whitewashed, as far as the eye can reach. The fishing is good, and

The weather is what might be called "bracing," and the towns and burgs are all ice-bergs, and the magistrate is quite an ice-berger.

The Russian settlement here is a very enterprising place. In the middle of the town you can turn and see a snow hill in almost any direction. But the "wooded tract" Mr. Seward speaks of is rather poor this year. No one need sing, "Woodman, Spare That Tree!" as the trees are quite spare enough already. Stopping at the "Continental" of the place, I made arrangements with the landlord to furnish me with something to eat. The agreement was closed by him setting the official Seal on it, but it was such a rare dish that I had to hold off for a better appetite. The walrus supply the place of cows. They pasture them on cakes of ice, and of course they furnish the natives with all the ice-cream they use. You are not troubled with mosquitoes nor worms on the trees, and early frosts never threaten to injure the peach crop, as we are told they always do in your part of the country, and the North Pole is always at hand to affix the telegraph wires to or to grow beans upon. The "skating rinks" are on the most extended scale, and but for the coolness that exists between everybody here, I have no doubt they would be well patronized. The principal occupation of the natives is trying to get something to eat, and of strangers to keep from being eaten. I visited all of the important points along the coast, and found them quite slippery and covered with ice, and I do not think an enemy could easily get a foothold on this land, on that account. Your political meetings are more than rivalled by the "big fish" out here, and some of the tallest "spouting" I have ever seen I have seen here. I think any enterprising person could strike oil out here without much difficulty, as it abounds everywhere, and with a few derricks erected over some of the whales a Spermin City could be built up that would rival any Oil City of your own State. I think our Government has done well in buying this place, for I never saw a place that was so much in need of buying; and as a country to emigrate from, it is not equalled by any. If Andy and Billy ever want to "swing the circle" again, they can use the Arctic Circle for that purpose, without asking anybody's leave. Yours, P. BEAR.

THE HOUSE FAMINE.

In view of the "impending crisis" of no houses to live in in the city, we think something might be devised to relieve this want. Around Richmond people are going to pitch tents for the summer, and the subject of doing the same thing has been canvassed in some of the eastern cities, but we think our Real Estate Agents might issue in their next month's "bulletins" something like this, and make a good thing of it:—

TO LET—A FIRST CLASS FURNITURE Car, located in Ridge avenue, above Broad. Owner to use the same during the day. Terms, $20 a month. Possession given immediately.

TO LET—ONE SETTEE IN FAIRMONT Park, when not wanted by visitors. This is a delightful location, just in view of the Wire Bridge and the West Philadelphia Stand Pipe. Price $30 for the season.

TO LET OR LEASE, TO A RESPONSIBLE party, the upper door-step of a handsome brownstone house on West Logan Square. Address Box 1, P. O.

TO LET TO A STRICTLY PRIVATE family, without children, part of a bath-room. Owner will board with the tenant in part payment of rent.

FOR SALE OR TO LET ON GROUND rent.—One large new curb-stone, in Spring Garden street, near Broad. Terms easy. Part of the money may remain.

TO LET.—FURNISHED, AS THE owner is going to Europe, a strictly private bedstead, with all of the modern conveniences. Rent, $40. Agents need not apply.

TO LET TO A QUIET YOUNG MAN, of good moral character, a seat in Car 296 of the Union Passenger Railway. To be used from 11 P. M. to 4 A. M. $50 per month.

TO LET—FOR THE SEASON, A HANDSOME and commodious rocking chair, to a family without children. Will be painted throughout and put in perfect order. Price, $100 per month. And so forth. By availing themselves of some such style of accommodation, homeless and shelterless people who will insist in living in the cities can be provided for, and many other "eligible sites" could be got together, and make the fortune of the Real Estate agent who should strike out in this new field; or a Stock Company might be formed, to be called the "City Home and Bedstead Improvement Company," capital $1,000,000, shares 10 cents each—putting it within the reach all. Judging from the success many Oil Companies had in selling stock on a far less tangible thing than this, we see no reason why the same capitalists could not be induced to go into this enterprise, particularly as it has so many "ground floor" positions.

Important Telegram. Mayor's Office, PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—To Major-General Halleck, San Francisco.—Dear General:—What do you think will be a fair price for the coast on the Schuylkill lying between the Fairmount Basin and the Park, and west of the fortieth parallel lines of the Union Passenger Railway? (Signed) MORTON.

[ANSWER.] Fort MITCHELL, SAN FRANCISCO BAY, CALIFORNIA.—Dear Morton:—Anywhere between five and ten millions in gold. Halleck, Maj.-Gen. U. S. A.

WANTED TO PURCHASE—REAL ESTATE situated anywhere. Parties having land on which the taxes cannot be collected, or Monarchs hard up, can find a purchaser for their territory by applying to W. H. S., Washington, D. C., opposite the Jackson Monument.

THE HIGHEST CASH PRICE GIVEN for old territories or cast-off possessions. Address W. H. S., Washington, D. C. Please state where the property can be seen.

THE HIGHEST MARKET VALUE FOR Arabian Deserts or Ley Wastes, or city property will be given in exchange. Address, with strict confidence, WILLIAM C. WASHINGTON, D. C. Please state where the property can be seen.

GOLD FOR SALE!—A LARGE QUANTITY of gold for sale, or will be exchanged for good farming ground. Address W. H. S., at this Office. Cane vs. Cayenne. A Massachusetts paper, speaking of the abolition of flogging in the schools, mentions a method of punishment adopted by some teachers of "filling the pupils' mouth with cayenne pepper." The editor asks, "Are we civilized?" We think the more appropriate question, in view of the peculiar punishment, would be, "Are we seasoned?"
